

Evening Telegraph and Post.

MOST WIDELY CIRCULATED EVENING PAPER IN SCOTLAND OUT OF EDINBURGH OR GLASGOW.

DUNDEE, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1936.

LATE EXTRA

Don't be Vague
ASK FOR Haig

TELEPHONE 4145-5-7 & 4161. DU'DEE.
TELEGRAPH ADDRESS—'TELEPOST' DUNDEE.

PRICE ONE PENNY.

PREVENTING EXPORT OF ARMS TO SPAIN PLANS FOR SEARCH OF SHIPS TEXT OF GOVERNMENT'S BILL

Offending Skippers Liable to £100 Fine

The text of the Government's Bill prohibiting the carriage of munitions to Spain was issued to-day. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

A ship required to stop or proceed to port fails to do so, the master will be liable to a fine not exceeding £100.

The Act applies to all articles which were prohibited to be exported from Britain by an Order in Council on Monday last.

Ships are banned from carrying munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the carriage of munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

Ships are banned from carrying munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the carriage of munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

Ships are banned from carrying munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the carriage of munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

Ships are banned from carrying munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the carriage of munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

Ships are banned from carrying munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the carriage of munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

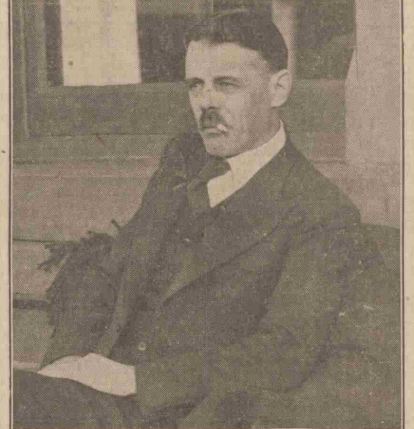

Ships are banned from carrying munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the carriage of munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

Ships are banned from carrying munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the carriage of munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

Ships are banned from carrying munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the carriage of munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

Ships are banned from carrying munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the carriage of munitions to Spanish territory. The bill prohibits the discharge in and transhipment for Spanish territory of munitions in any British ship. It is given for any suspect ship to be detained and searched, and if the Act has been found to have been contravened the ship may be taken to the nearest port.

CHESS MASTER'S VISIT

Mr Znesko Borowsky, the Russian chess master, who visited Dundee to-day. He is engaging in exhibition matches with members of Dundee Chess Club and others.

Another M.C.C. Collapse

The last six M.C.C. wickets fell for 22 in the game against Queensland that began at Brisbane to-day. The English side were all out for 215. Queensland is recognised as the weakest of the Australian cricketing states, yet the tourists' bowling was shown scant respect, and 71 runs were put on without the loss of a wicket. This on the scene of next week's Test match!

GIRL VICTIM OF LORRY CRASH IDENTIFIED

19-YEAR-OLD FARM WORKER

Youth Also Killed

The girl victim of a double tragedy which occurred when a heavy lorry and trailer left the road and crashed near Perth was to-day identified as Rosaline Davina Smith (19), farm worker, whose home is at Wester Coatbank of Lagavann, Drumithrie, Kincardineshire.

The girl's father motored to Perth this forenoon and identified the body. The other victim was John Ferguson, 18, who resides at Mossend, West Calder. He was an auxiliary driver.

The crash occurred late last night, when the lorry left the road in the fog, struck a telegraph pole, and overturned into a field. The driver of the lorry was John Boslen, c/o Dickson, 51 Kirkcaldy, West Calder, and he was slightly injured. The youth and woman who were in the cabin were killed.

It is not known how the accident happened, although it is thought that the heavy mist which hung over the road in patches was the primary cause.

Violent Stretch of Road. The crash occurred on what is regarded as a notorious stretch of road six miles from Perth and just above the Cairn Brae, which has been the scene of numerous accidents.

While travelling uphill the vehicle, which had a trailer laden with cattle, veered suddenly, demolished a section of wall, smashed a telegraph pole, and crashed over on its side.

All three occupants were trapped in the front of the lorry, which was wrecked, but the driver had a remarkable escape from injury, although he was jammed in the cabin.

The cattle in the lorry were thrown out on to the road, but the trailer remained upright.

Passing motorists held up the wreckage, released the cattle, and turned them into a field.

DUNDEE JUTE TRADE DISCUSSIONS OVER WAGES QUESTION

Representatives of employers and employees in Dundee jute trade are meeting in conference this afternoon in an endeavour to settle the wages question which has been under consideration for some time.

The trade unions request for an increase of 10 per cent. was turned down because the state of the industry "did not justify any increase."

The members of the unions decided by a majority on a ballot vote, in favour of a strike, but before action, they agreed to open negotiations.

Today's is the second conference to be held.

Commissioner Lamb May Be B.B.C. Governor

Angus Man One of Salvation Army Leaders

Commissioner David Lamb, the Angus man, who has played a prominent part in the Salvation Army affairs, may be one of the Governors of the B.B.C. when the new charter is granted to the Corporation on January 1.

He has not been asked officially, but it is understood that he has been approached by Government officials.

Commissioner Lamb, who is 70 years of age, is a native of Frochburn.

He joined the Salvation Army as an officer in 1884.

Commissioner Lamb is an expert on emigration problems.

He has been in charge of the Salvation Army's Intelligence Office since 1932.

ITALIANS OCCUPY GORE

Rome, Friday. Gore, headquarters of the Abyssinian Government in Western Abyssinia, has been occupied by an Italian force.

Gore was occupied without a shot being fired. There was no trace of an independent Government.

DESERTED FROM THE NAVY

A naval stoker appeared before Dundee Police Court to-day, charged with desertion from the Navy.

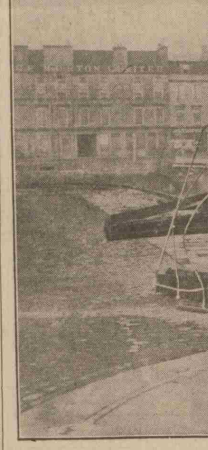

Accused was Walter Mason, stoker, 10 Small's Lane.

Lieutenant Edwards from the Scottish Naval Base, Rosyth, was present in court, and accused was handed over under his charge, with instructions that he be kept at Dundee for a maximum of eight days, until an escort was arranged to take him away, immediately afterwards for murder.

BERLIN EXECUTIONS

Five pockets in Berlin streets announce the execution there to-day of 82-year-old Walter Wolbrock, for high treason.

HARBOUR SMASH

The swing bridge at King William Dock, Dundee, which was damaged when the steamer Edith was swept through the lock by the flood tide last night. The Edith is lying at the quay in Dock Street.

TO-DAY'S WEATHER FORECAST

Leuchars, Friday. Weather forecast for 24 hours from 10 a.m. Bright periods; mist locally at night. Temp. mod., max. 44 degs. F., min. 33 degs. F. General impression: Weather will be generally cloudy, with occasional rain or showers in the north and north-west, and occasional slight drizzle in the south.

FOG

STOP PRESS TELEGRAPH AND POST. EDITORIAL PHONE—No. 4144.

TWO MEN KILLED WHEN PLANE CRASHED ON RAILWAY LINE NEAR STAMFORD.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

CHIEF ENGINEER BLAMED FOR LOSS OF SHIP

"DELIBERATELY SUNK," SAYS JUDGE

Claim for Insurance Fails

Giving judgment to-day in a High Court action concerning the sinking of the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

Mr Canning, as the assignee of a marine insurance policy on the s.s. Braedale in the English Channel on October 16, 1932, Mr Justice Branson held that the vessel was deliberately sunk by the chief engineer, Mr George Canning, of Wolverden Avenue, Liverpool.

The secret of Perfect Gravy

Supplement the natural juices from the meat with Oxo—Add the actual rich appetising extractives of Beef—that is the secret of perfect gravy.

Oxo Cubes provide the meat basis of gravies in the handiest and most economical form. Their rich Beef ingredients add strength and flavour.

ADD ONE OR TWO

OXO CUBES